Dear Mr. Ahmed,

Thank you for your email.

Kindly note that there appears to be an issue regarding the EOSB enclosed.

The last working day stated in the EOS states my last working day as the 26th of March. This is incorrect as my final working day was sent in my resignation notification email (attached), which I received no objection to prior to the conclusion of my mentioned notice period (attached) was the 28th of March. This was also reflected on my clearance document (also attached) as March 28th as well.

AWPS School
Date of EOS generation	31-03-26	Nature of Contract	Limited
Name of Employee	Brandon Walid Abdul Baki	Reason for exit	Resignation
Joining Date	04-09-25	Basic Salary (p.m.)	7000
Resignation Date	26-02-26	Gross Salary (p.m.)	20000
Last Working Day	26-03-26
Description			Amount

The image above would only reflect a 28 day notice period, while I served the full 30 day notice period.

Another issue I have noticed is regarding the notice period days served in February state that I served 3 days of my notice period in February. As I sent my resignation notification on February 26th, according to my consultation call with the MOHRE, my notice period begins the day after my resignation notification and not on the day of. This would mean I served only 2 days of my notice period in February (the 27th and the 28th). In the EOS document it also states 26 days of my notice period were served in March (where it should be 28), and 3 days served in February (where it should be 2). When adding up the numbers in the current EOS, 26+3 only reflects a 29 day notice period. Please see the below image for your reference.

Description	Amount
End of Service Entitlements / Calculation
February salary released with the payroll includes notice period 3 days	20,000
Gratuity	0
Leave salary	0
Any Other benefit as per the Terms of Employment
March salary includes notice period -26 days	17,333
TOTAL GROSS END OF SERVICE DUES	(A) 17,333

Noting this, March 28th marked my full 30 calendar day notice period, as stated in my resignation notification.

Can you please correct the details of the EOS to reflect these details, and send the updated document with the modified final settlement amount as well (reflecting the additional 2 days of salary for the month of March)?

Thanks in advance for your kind guidance and support.

Dear Mr. Ahmed,

Thank you for your response.

Following our correspondence, I contacted the Ministry of Human Resources and Emiratisation (MOHRE) to seek official clarification on this calculation.

They confirmed that, by law, a notice period commences on the day after the resignation notification is submitted. Because my formal resignation was submitted on February 26th, my 30-day notice period officially and legally concludes on March 28th (as stated in my resignation notification email), rather than the March 26th date listed in the EOS document.

The MOHRE representative recommended that the school HR department contact them directly should you need to verify this statutory calculation.

In light of this official guidance, I respectfully request that the EOS document be amended to accurately reflect March 28th as my last working day and to include the corresponding two additional days of salary for the month of March.

Thank you for your time and cooperation in ensuring this documentation aligns with MOHRE regulations.

Dear Mr. Ahmed,

I hope this email finds you well.

I am writing to formally request an update regarding the correction of my End of Service (EOS) document. It has been a few days since I shared MOHRE's guidance and clarification that my 30-day notice period legally concluded on March 28th, not March 26th.

Have you had the opportunity to contact MOHRE directly to verify this statutory calculation, as their representative recommended?

I am eager to conclude this process smoothly and amicably. Please let me know when I can expect to receive the amended EOS document reflecting my full notice period and the corresponding two days of salary.

I look forward to your prompt response so we can finalize this without further delay.

Best regards,

Brandon Walid Abdul-Baki

Dear Mr. Ahmed,

Thank you for sending over the updated document. I appreciate the adjustment, but I am unable to sign it in its current state as it still reflects March 27th as my final day.

As confirmed by MOHRE, my legal 30-day notice period officially concluded on March 28th. Therefore, the final calculation must reflect 28 days of salary for March, bringing the total to 18,666.67 AED.

Additionally, MOHRE advised me that my work permit cancellation and EOS settlement must be legally finalized within 14 days of my last working day, which makes the deadline April 11th. They instructed me to open a formal complaint if the settlement is not resolved by this date.

I have deeply valued my time at AWPS and my primary goal is to conclude this process smoothly and amicably with the school before that deadline.

Please let me know if you can amend the document to reflect the legally compliant MOHRE stated date, March 28th, so we can finalize this without needing to involve the Ministry.

Again, I would like to kindly advise you to contact the MOHRE to confirm these details in case you are still uncertain.

Thank you for your time and understanding.

Best regards,

Brandon Walid Abdul-Baki

Dear Brandon,

Your resignation was submitted on 26th February during working hours @1:27pm, The below calculation represents your full and final settlement, prepared in line with MOHRE guidelines. February salary was released on time including the three days (26,27 and 28).

And the calculation represents remaining 27 days in March so your last working days calculated as 27th March.

If you wish to proceed with a labor complaint, that is your decision. However, please note that there will be no further discussion on this matter.

Regards,
Sakha

Dear Sakha,

I hope you have been well and in good health.

Thank you for sharing the final settlement breakdown.

While I understand your calculation includes February 26th as the first day, I must respectfully clarify that according to MoHRE guidance, a notice period legally commences the day after a resignation is submitted. Therefore, counting from February 27th, the mandatory 30-day period concludes exactly on Saturday, March 28th.

Furthermore, my formal resignation (attached for your reference) explicitly stated March 28th as my final day of employment to ensure compliance with this timeline. No objections or corrections were raised regarding this date during my remaining time at the school, and my handover was completed based on that mutually understood schedule. March 28th as my last day of employment has also been written on my signed clearance document (also attached).

I would very much prefer to close out my time with the school amicably and resolve this discrepancy internally. However, if the school's stance on this calculation is absolutely final, I will proceed with opening a MoHRE ticket on April 11th so a mediator can provide the official legal directive on the settlement date.

Please let me know if the calculation in the EOS document can be adjusted to reflect March 28th as my last working day before Saturday, April 11th, 2026.

Best regards,

Brandon

Dear Sakha,

Thank you for confirming the school's final position regarding the settlement calculation and that there will be no further discussion on this matter.

Noting this, as advised by MoHRE legal counsel, I should also confirm the following:

I am legally entitled to my correct final settlement, calculated through my final day of employment of March 28th, within 14 days of my contract end date, in accordance with Article 53 of the UAE Labour Law.

I will observe this legal grace period, which concludes on April 11th. If the adjusted settlement has not been processed and my work permit cancelled by that date, I will proceed with officially submitting a MoHRE ticket to have the Ministry's legal department resolve the discrepancy and execute the cancellation.

Thanks again for your kind guidance and support.

Brandon
